Securing Your Business 2011

The Securing Your Business Conferences are the result of a partnership between the Halifax Regional Police, the business community, the security industry in the Halifax Regional Municipality, crime prevention stakeholders such as Nova Scotia Crime Stoppers, the Canadian Society for Industrial Security Inc., and many others. Working together, their goal is to facilitate education and information sharing in order to make the Halifax Regional Municipality a safer and more secure community.

Presentations at Securing Your Business 2011 will include a discussion of occupational fraud in the retail sector with Roy Franco, Regional Loss Prevention Manager for Toys R Us. Roy brings a tremendous amount of experience and insight to this issue. Identification, Diligence and Awareness Training (IDAT) with Ron Lovett, President of Source Security and Investigation Inc. IDAT teaches how to spot fraudulent identification. Following Ron's presentation, Sergeant Andrew Matthews will discuss Liquor Enforcement within the Halifax Regional Municipality.

Also presenting at the conference will be Gary Frail of Nova Scotia Crime Stoppers who will update attendees on the program and discuss its recent history and successes.
